

Mr. Harvey Schayes has resigned from his position of Senior Sales consultant effective 31 Dec. 2010 to take a position in academia. He will use his many years of experience to develop new ways to present this information to persons wishing to enter the field of wealth management. We wish him well and success in the future.

---